

Revised Fee Structure for IELTS, TOEFL & PTE

Revised Fees Structure:

IELTS	16,250 INR
TOEFL	16,000 INR
PTE	15,900 INR

Recently, the fees for English language proficiency tests such as IELTS, TOEFL, and PTE has been revised. The revised fees have taken effect starting from the 1st of April 2023.

It is important to note that these fees may vary slightly depending on the country where the test is taken.

According to the Educational Testing Service (ETS), the organization that administers the TOEFL test, the revised fees has been introduced to maintain high standards of the test and improve the overall experience for test-takers.

Similarly, the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) has also stated that the new fees will allow the organization to continue providing high-quality test-taking services to candidates worldwide.

The Pearson Test of English (PTE) has also revised its fees, citing the need to invest in new technology and infrastructure to enhance the test-taking experience for candidates.

It is important to note that English language proficiency tests are a necessary requirement for individuals seeking admission to universities, immigration, and employment in countries where English is the primary language. These tests are recognized globally and are accepted by thousands of universities, employers, and immigration authorities worldwide.

Considering the applicability and the revised fees for TOEFL, IELTS, and PTE tests, it would be beneficial for test takers to start preparing early and seek expert guidance to improve their chances of success. Adequate preparation is vital for excelling in these tests. As such, joining a renowned TOEFL, PTE or IELTS Coaching can be a valuable investment to achieve the required test scores.
